

K-love, the Christian broadcast station in our area does a great service locally. It is the only station playing current Christian music to meet the needs of the younger audience here. Frequently it is broadcast on FM translators. Apparently LPFM would have priority over the translator service. K-Love is an uplifting station meeting the needs of people who need encouragement. It has family oriented programming. Please keep them on the air. Jane Smith